

The Fairviewan

From the Pastor's Desk —

My beloved members,

Our Annual Men's Empowerment Conference was held June 1—2, 2012, here at our church. The men of our church were engaged in a time of study, friendship and fellowship.

The theme for the Empowerment Conference this year was "God Molding and Shaping Men for Being the Church Today," Jeremiah 18:6.

As the Pastor of Fairview, I am making the announcement that God is calling men back to Him. The Lord is saying that I will mold them and shape them for My purposes in My world! Men, you need to respond to His call and let the Lord transform your life.

There is no question in my mind that if thousands of men across our nation "return to God" and God in turn return to them (Zachariah 1:3), a great revival will come through them and have worldwide impact.

Men need to be God's men in their homes, in churches, and in the marketplace where God has placed them.

God is searching for faithful men. He is searching for men He can trust to intercede on behalf of our nation. God is looking for men He can trust with God-sized tasks (Ezekiel 22:30).

The word "faithful" is linked to a promise: "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Revelations 2:10). Faithfulness is a life-long goal. It is persevering to the end. Faithfulness is remaining true to the Lord and His Word through discouragement and difficulty, as well as joy and success.

Let me ask the men of Fairview: Will you be that man? Will the Lord's eyes rest on you or pass over you?

Pastor J. A. Reed, Jr.

O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

Jeremiah 18:6—KJV

FAIRVIEW HOLDS 15TH ANNUAL FRIEND'S DAY

BY PAULA MCGLORY, CONTRIBUTING REPORTER

Rev. J. L. Franklin, a native of Louisiana, was the guest preacher for Fairview's 15th Annual Friend's Day on May 27, 2012.

Rev. Franklin prepared our hearts for the Word as he led us in singing, "God Has Smiled on Me."

His scripture came from Luke 9:46-50, "And Jesus said unto him (John), Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us." His subject was "Wrong Focus."

Rev. Franklin admonished the congregation that life is too short and God is too good for us to have the wrong focus. We as Christians must stay focused and not get distracted.

His first point: Wrong focus causes selfish intent. We lose our focus when we think that we are the only one who God has that can get the job done. We forget that God always has someone else who can step in and do that same job just as well as, and maybe better, than we can.

The second point: Wrong focus causes a shameful disposition. When we render service to God, we should do so in a spirit of humility. Jesus gave the example of a child who is received "In His Name." Jesus made it clear to His disciples that the least shall become the greatest. Greatness is measured in humility and servant hood. We lose our focus when we become full of pride and think we are better than others.

The third point: Wrong focus causes a sad posture. We lose our focus when we look down on others and do not accept others who are not a part of our group. We become self conceited. If Jesus is pleased, then we should be pleased. Everything that we do should bring glory to Jesus' name. His name is the giver of all our blessings. His name is the reason for our salvation.

There is nobody like God. Every time God shows up, He shows out!

We had a blessed Friend's Day celebration. We recognized friends and the church family members who invited friends. Rev. Cleo McGlory, Evangelism Minister, presented prizes to the those who had the most friends in attendance. The recipients were: First Place: Teresa Hill (22 guests); Second Place: Lavinne Moore (15 guests); Third Place (tie): Melva Franklin and Rita Wommack (5 guests).

Thanks to all that participated. All are winners in the sight of God!

"Life is too short and God is too good for us to have the wrong focus."

DO YOU HAVE A PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST?

If you believe in your heart that Jesus Is Lord, the Christ, the Savior, the Son of the Living God, and you are willing to turn from sin to God, then receive Jesus Christ now by faith and pray this prayer:

Lord Jesus I am a sinner.
 Forgive me of all my sins, come into my heart and save me.

I do now confess you as my risen Lord.
 Thank you Lord Jesus for saving me. AMEN

Fairview to Host State Congress June 4–7, 2012

The 106th Annual Session of the Oklahoma Baptist State Congress of Christian Education is being hosted by Fairview Missionary Baptist Church, with Pastor J. A. Reed, Jr., serving as host pastor.

This year's theme is "Solidarity With the Savior Through Our Worship." The Congress is the educational arm of the Oklahoma Baptist State Convention and is responsible for teaching and training classes covering every aspect of Christian Education. Rev. Donald Dumas, Pastor of Dean's Chapel Baptist Church in Muskogee, is the President of the State Congress and Dr. C. W. Whitlow of Union Baptist, Lawton, is Convention President.

The session will begin on Monday night at 7:00 p.m. with a Musical and Welcome Program. Elected officials, religious organizations and Fairview Church will address the congregation during the evening.

The musical, under the direction of Velina Davenport, Director of Music for the Oklahoma Baptist State Convention, will be presented by a community choir comprised of churches in the East Zion Consolidated District Association. This worship experience will celebrate songs presented by the following musicians and directors: Brenda Johnson, Minister of Music, Greater Mt. Olive Baptist Church; Orlando Smith, Director, Greater Mt. Olive Baptist Church; Alonzo Cowles, Director, Greater Mt. Olive Baptist Church; Johnneese S. Walter, Minister of Music, Fairview Baptist Church; Joseph Smith, Minister of Music, Bethlehem Star Baptist Church; and Rev. James Reed, III, Musician, Fairview Baptist Church. The choir will be accompanied by a host of musicians and will feature singers and soloists from the participating churches.

The 106th Session will officially open on Tuesday morning and close on Thursday. It will include instructional periods and inspirational messages during the day and worship periods in the evenings, beginning at 7:00 p.m. nightly. The Congress President will give his annual address on Wednesday night. The Children and Youth Rally will be held on Thursday morning and will be followed by the Commencement Message.

For information during the session, call Fairview Baptist Church at 405-232-1621.

Prayer Ministry

Seek God to rescue people enslaved in spiritual darkness. Illuminate the peoples' darkened minds and may they follow you with grateful faithfulness.

Isaiah 42:6-7: "The LORD, have called You in righteousness, And will hold Your hand; I will keep You and give You as a covenant to the people, As a light to the Gentiles, To open blind eyes, To bring out prisoners from the prison, Those who sit in darkness from the prison house."

The Bible reveals that the ministry of Jesus Christ is diametrically opposed to that of the devil and his agents. While the enemy and his agents ensnare and imprison people, including Christians, Jesus sets people free from all forms of captivity.

God has a prison; the devil also has. The difference is that the prisoners of God are prisoners of hope. Many people die in the prison of the devil and are transferred to his mortuary which is hell fire. Some people have been in his prison for a long time. Some people usually do not know that they are in prison. They tend to look at others around them and fail to look at the person within.

The message of Jesus is filled with the power to break satanic prison doors around our lives and set us free so that we can enjoy fully the divine benefits in Christ. God has the power to set the captives free and deliver to the uttermost.

God has called His spirit-filled servants to bring righteousness to His word and to fulfill His covenant to bless the nations. (Read Genesis 12:1-3). Jesus took the role of God's servant and invites us also to be God's servants to bring God's light to all people. God calls, leads and keeps us. We respond by involving ourselves in the world's needs and leading lost people to God.

FAIRVIEW RECOGNIZES GRADUATES

The Fairview Church Family showed special tribute to its graduates of all academic levels on Sunday, May 20. Special seating was reserved for the honorees and the Pastor's sermon for the day contained points tailored to minister to the graduates.

The Pastor's message, "If God is for Us, Who is Against Us" (Romans 8:31). He encouraged them to remember a quote for life: "If you mind can conceive it, if your heart can believe it, then with God, you can achieve it!"

In addition to the church providing graduation gifts to the students, Carlotta Hill presented gifts on behalf of the College Connection for College and High School students, Lonnie and Rosie Hunt gave monetary gifts to the College and High School students and Donna Thompson provided Bibles to all of the youth graduates on behalf of the Prison Ministry.

Students and their known school and achievement are listed in the table to the right.

MEN'S MINISTRY CORNER

Greetings in the name of Jesus, the Christ. Another month has elapsed and it's time to report the news from the ministry. To say that it has been a busy month would be an understatement.

The Eighth Annual Empowerment Conference is being held on the 1st & 2nd of this month and we are claiming the victory in that it will have been a huge success. It will have been good once more to have had our National President, Bro. Harold L. Simmons, with us. He is always sensational as a teacher/lecturer.

The men have put in extra preparation for their Annual Musical and it is scheduled to occur on the evening of the publication date of the June Fairviewan. We are looking for it to be a huge success, along with the remainder of the Empowerment Conference. We want to thank Ahmad Kennedy and Rev. James Reed, III, for their zeal, dedication, and commitment to see that we were adequately prepared. If we have any success at all, much of that success can be attributed to their efforts.

A reminder once more to pray for those who have asked for special prayers on their behalf. Please remember our sick brethren with special prayers. Let's remember to pray for Brothers Ronald House, Willard Jones, Ron Coffey, Robert Jackson, Roy Nelson, Tyrone White, Billy Marshall, Havered Hill, Sr. and Harlan Jones.

We take this opportunity to salute one of our most committed and faithful members who has moved to another location with his family. The entire family allowed their lights to shine so that others could see their good works. It saddens us deeply to see them go, but we have resigned ourselves to the fact that God has a higher calling for them. Godspeed Deacon Arthur and family. I personally shall miss you deeply. I am grateful indeed for the love and care you showed to me during my post operative period from surgery during early 2011. You provided excellent care for me when I was unable to care for myself. I shall not ever forget that. God does not often send people into our lives as special as the Smith family has been in my life. My prayer is that God will always bless and keep you and make his face to shine upon you.

We call upon every Man, Young Man, and Boy that is presently inactive in our Men's Ministry to become an active member. Our scheduled meeting time is the 2nd Monday of each month at 6 PM. God is not pleased with your lack of participation. Please join me, along with others who are faithful, as we try to do what thus sayeth the Lord and to be obedient to His calling upon us to do the works which He intends for us to do.

Also, the Singing Churchmen calls upon you to join with them as we try to lift our voices in "joyful praise" to God in Song.

We have a place for you and if you can make a joyful noise unto the Lord, you will fit in perfectly. Our regularly scheduled rehearsal times are each 1st and 3rd Monday of the month at 7:30 PM. You are cordially invited to join with us on those dates and at that time.

We close out this writing in asking for your prayers of support as we try to lead the men. We ask God daily to bless us so that we may be a blessing in the life of someone else and to order our steps so that we may do the things which are pleasing in His sight.

Scripture for the Month: He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame. The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise. Proverbs 10:5, 11:30.

Although Things are not perfect
Because of trial or pain
Continue in thanksgiving
Do not begin to blame
Even when the times are hard
Fierce winds are bound to blow
God is forever able
Hold on to what you know
Imagine life without His love
Joy would cease to be
Keep thanking Him for all the things
Love imparts to thee
Move out of "camp complaining"
No weapon that is known
On earth can yield the power
Praise can do alone
Quit looking at the future
Redeem the time at hand
Start every day with worship
To "Thank" is a command
Until we see Him coming
Victorious in the sky
We'll run the race with gratitude
Xalting God most high

Yes there will be good times and yes some will be bad, but..
Zion waits in glory...where none are ever sad!

We Remember

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying “Write this down: Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they are blessed indeed, for they will rest from their hard work; for their good deeds follow them!” - Revelation 14:13

Brother Jimmie Lee Reed

Sunrise: July 13, 1949 - Sunset: May 4, 2012
Home-going Celebration: May 11, 2012

JIMMIE LEE REED was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to Rev. J. A. Reed, Sr. and Mae Ella Reed. He was the sixth of eight children.

Jimmie accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized by his father at Mt. Zion Baptist, Stillwater. Jimmie was a member of Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, Muskogee prior to moving to Oklahoma City and uniting with Fairview.

He was a very jolly and lovable person that believed in being a friend to all and helping people. He is survived by loving family members, a number that are members of the Fairview Church Family, including one of his brothers, Pastor J. A. Reed, Jr., and three of his sisters, Claudette Gaines, Shirley Halstied and Cozetta Heard.

Our prayers are with the Reed family as you move forward through God’s power in the departure of Brother Jimmie.

Brother Otis Andrew Wiley

Sunrise: May 2, 1929 - Sunset: May 7, 2012
Home-going Celebration: May 14, 2012

OTIS ANDREW WILEY was born to Ms. Jessie Burton in Arcadia, Oklahoma. He received his education in Luther, Oklahoma.

Otis accepted Christ at a very early age. He moved to Oklahoma City and joined Antioch Institutional Baptist Church under Rev. F. D. Waters. Bro. Wiley later became a part of the Fairview Baptist Church Family and remained a faithful supporter of the church and its programs until his health failed.

Brother Wiley was known for his audible witness and hand claps, witnessing to the glory and goodness of God. He was a part of the “Fairview Travelers”, always getting his name on the list, whether the church was traveling across town or out of state.

We offer our prayers to the Wiley family. He will be greatly missed at Fairview.
