

MODERNIZING WOMEN'S CARE: All About Certified Nurse Midwives

Pictured from left to right: Colleen Sahy, Stacy Hendershott, Shannon Markle and Tina Crum.

Certified nurse midwives (CNMs) are advanced-practice nurses who specialize in caring for women during their reproductive years and beyond. While assisting with birth is a major part of their role, CNMs are also able to provide a wider spectrum of health services. Join the CNMs of St. Mary Medical Center's Innovative Women's Health for a question-and-answer session to learn more about the care they provide.
