Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends in Christ at King of Glory,

“Is the Reformation over? And what if it is?” That is the intriguing title of an article I recently read. The author asks: “Should we now ask whether the Reformation has served its purpose and should graciously go out of business?”

This is the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Of course, the Reformation didn't just start one day in October 500 years ago. No, winds of change were blowing through those times just like they're blowing through our time. Martin Luther, with the aid of new technology, the printing press, was put forward as the first person created by the media. His writings spread like wildfire.

Now, Luther wasn't out to lead a movement such as the Reformation. He simply wanted to reform some of the Church's practices by offering some important propositions for debate. Is God's forgiveness for sale? Absolutely not! Seeking to be clear, slogans like “Word Alone”, “Faith alone” and “Grace alone” became prominent—at least for the reformers.

Luther found himself in a leadership position in the Reformation. As a result, he was kicked out of the Roman Catholic Church. But Luther and other reformers continued their work seeking to be faithful to God's Word. Not long after that the “Lutheran” church was born. In 1555 at the Peace of Augsburg, it became legal to be a Lutheran and have a Lutheran church.

Over all the years, one of the things that remains is that Lutherans seek to be a reforming movement within the Church Catholic (which means “universal”). Always reforming, always looking for ways to hear God's Word anew, always on the move.

So, what do you think? Is the Reformation over?

God bless you and keep you in His Grace!

Pastor James A. Darchuk

Leadership Retreat

This fall's Leadership Retreat will be held October 13-14. A retreat provides the Board of Directors time to work on and discuss matters of importance that can't be fully discussed during a regular Board meeting. It's a different sort of time—a time of fellowship, team building, honest discussion, and decision making.

This year's retreat continues our conversations about the plateau zone King of Glory is in. Last year, since KOG is growing, we looked at the issue of making the transition to a "large" congregation. (That's one where average worship attendance is 350 and up. Presently we are about 275 or so.) We took some initial steps to move forward and explore what that would look like.

Do we need to change our organizational structure? What changes to our church staff would we need to make? Is it time to update and revise our constitutional documents? How about using ministry teams?

At this retreat our work continues. For more information, contact Marty Ambuehl (Congregational President) or Pastor Jim.

Building a Budget

Each fall the Board of Directors, with help and direction from the staff, builds a budget for the coming year. A budget is much more than just dollars and cents. It is the plan for what King of Glory hopes to accomplish in 2018.

The Board plans to host open forums on the budget next January so that members can ask questions, make comments, and offer suggestions. The Board will then propose a budget for the congregation to consider. The 2018 Budget will be adopted at the KOG Annual Meeting held in late January.

Belonging, Believing, & Becoming: New Member Classes at King of Glory

New Member Sunday is November 5

King of Glory welcomes all. We hope that all visitors feel that sense of welcome each time they attend worship, serve alongside members, or join in community celebrations. New Member Classes are the process we use to help visitors take the next step of investment in this shared ministry.

New Member Classes involve four gatherings:

Gathering #1 – A conversation in your home. A chance to visit with a pastor personally.

Gathering #2 – A party with the pastors. The Quanbecks enjoy hosting and this is a great excuse for getting together. Date: Sunday, October 15, 2-5 pm @ 3908 Palisades Park Dr.

Gathering #3 – A class at the church. We will gather in the church (Saturday, October 14, 9am-11am) to learn more about the history, theology, and practices of the congregation.

Gathering #4 – A celebration in worship. Sunday, November 5 is New Member Sunday.

If you are interested in membership, you can sign up for the class in the Commons area at the church or by contacting Pastor Ben directly. (benquanbeck@gmail.com)

STEWARDSHIP AND THE ABUNDANT LIFE THAT WE CELEBRATE

Fall is knocking on our doors and with this time of year comes the opportunity to celebrate our abundant lives. Pastor Jim recently shared this definition of stewardship with me: to steward: to use one's gifts (time, talent, money, health) by making intentional choices, big and small, every day that honor and celebrate God's gift of abundant life.

The choice of sharing these gifts is presented to us every day at King of Glory. Whether it is through our service, donations, hospitality and caring or sharing monetarily, we all have many opportunities to share God's generosity. Many of these gifts stay within our congregation as we reach out to each other but many of our gifts also go far beyond our congregation to bless our community, nation and world.

During the next few weeks you'll be hearing terms that perhaps are not familiar to you. Terms like stewardship, benevolence and pledging. Stewardship is basically returning to God what he has first given to us! Benevolence can be defined as using our resources to bless ministries that happen beyond our walls. Pledging is when you indicate the financial amount that you intend to contribute to the mission and ministry of King of Glory in the upcoming year. We ask every household to consider making a yearly pledge, no matter the size, as an act of faith in God and an act of investment in the mission of the congregation. Pledges can be received by returning a pledge card anytime in the month of October.

During this next month we will be encouraging you to thoughtfully consider your intentional choice of gifts to God as carried out in the programs and ministries of our church. How do you steward God's gifts? How do you pledge so that we may meet your expectations of ministry and activity? And how do you donate your resources to meet the many needs of our community and beyond?

In John 10:10 Jesus says: ...I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly. Please read your emails, like us on Facebook, Google us and view the TV screen in the Commons area as we encourage you to honor and celebrate God's gift: LIFE ABUNDANT!

Commemorating the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation

500 years ago a monk by the name of Martin Luther challenged the Roman Catholic Church to think differently about the Grace of God made known in Jesus Christ. He was hardly the first person to raise such issues but Luther's writing, speaking, and questioning sparked something in the world that could never be undone.

This year we commemorate 500 years of the church that is formed, reformed, and transformed by the overwhelming grace of God.

How will we commemorate this momentous occasion?

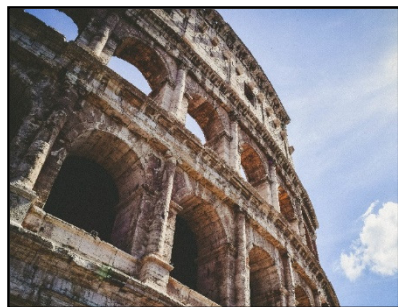

Preaching themes intentionally connected with the Reformation.

Decorations in Red for two months – reminding us of the Holy Spirit's work among us and our Reformation Roots.

In your bulletins, you will find inserts that teach about Martin Luther and the questions that challenged the world.

There will be a Reformation Station where you can learn more or purchase books connected to the Reformation.

Highlights from September Board of Directors Meeting...

The 2018 stewardship campaign runs the month of October. Worship and sermons are planned on stewardship and generosity. Pledge cards for 2018 may be turned in at any time. We're hoping for a generous response.

The preliminary budget for 2018 was presented. Questions we pondered were: 1) Should we officially become a "first fruits" congregation? That is where each month we give first to our benevolences and live off the balance. (That's what we hope our members will do!) 2) Should we officially designate 10% of our income toward our benevolences? 3) How do we meet the financial challenges of a growing church?

Our Constitutional update and revision was discussed. Questions we need to answer are: 1) Should we reduce the number of members on the Board of Directors? The present recommendation is to reduce it from 17 to 7. 2) Should all KOG pastors have voice and vote at the Board meetings or just the Lead Pastor? The present recommendation is that only the Lead Pastor has voice and vote. Our Associate pastors would have voice, but not vote. 3) Should we move away from our present organizational structure with board representatives to a smaller board and then use ministry teams to carry out the ministries of KOG? The present recommendation is to move toward ministry teams.

Our Leadership Retreat will be held October 13-14. We will be discussing these constitutional matters at the retreat.
