RESIDENTS OF THE MONTH BETTY and MIKE VAN DEVENTER (CANYON VIEW)

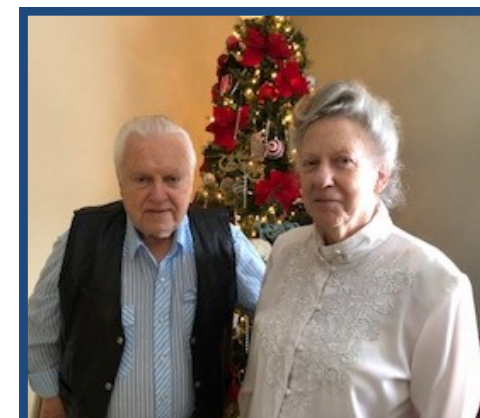

First, let's introduce Mike. He was born in Linton, Indiana. His mother was the most influential person in his life. As a child Mike had a pigeon and also a horse as pets. In the summertime as a child he used to help in the family garden patch. His favorite game as a child was swinging on grapevines. That sounds like fun! When he was a child, the thing that frightened him the most was the dark. He had a best friend as a child and his name was James Boyd. In school, his favorite subject was Math. Mike's first job was at an ice cream place called The Penguin, which was similar to Dairy Queen. His best job was working at a computer center. His ideal job would be working for C. K. Richel, Jr. Mike has two sisters and four brothers. In his spare time, Mike used to like to hunt and ride horses.

Now we'll introduce Betty, the other half of this lovely couple. She was born in Bloomington, Indiana, and the most influential people in her life were her mother and father. As a child, she had a cat as a pet. In the summertime she used to play on their farm and with the neighbor kids. Betty, or "Betsy" as she was sometimes called, loved to play Kick the Tin Can and Red Rover. Large animals, cows and horses frightened her. Betty's father, who was born in 1898, used to tell her about the time that Jessie James and John Dillinger watered their horses at her grandpa's farm. Her best friend growing up was Judy Sanders. In school her favorite subjects were Math and Spelling. She usually received A's in her classes. Betty's first job was at a Woolworth's store and her best job was also working at a computer center, just like Mike. Her ideal job would be working for C. K. Richel, Jr., also just like Mike! As a teenager, her singing idol was Ricky Nelson, who later perished in an airplane crash. She has one sister and four brothers.

Mike and Betty were married at the ages of 18 and 15, respectfully. They have one daughter, 31 years old, who lives in Corvallis. Their daughter would describe her parents as thoughtful and caring. They are both loving and kind parents and grandparents. They have been married for 57 and a half years. They met at Betty's brother's house. Their happiest memory is of when they first met. Their favorite music is gospel and their favorite holiday is Thanksgiving. Their favorite place to visit is the Oregon coast. The accomplishment they are most proud of is being in the Christian ministry for over 40 years, 27 of those years pastoring in Missoula.

Make sure to say hello and get to know them if you see them around the campus. You will enjoy their company!

MY APARTMENT

I am an old man, 91. I still have my mental facilities; hence, I can keep up my lifetime hobby, WRITING. I have written things since I was in the fourth grade of Resin Orr grade school on the near west side of Chicago. That was a long time ago.

In my 89th year I fell, and over the course of a year I was in the hospital for a month or two at different times for different ailments. I am now 91 and as fully recovered as I am going to get. I walk with a cane and limp a little, but I can get around pretty good and tend to my needs. I live in a nice three-room apartment at Sapphire Lutheran Homes where I can look out a large glass door and observe the mountains and timber that surround the valley floor.

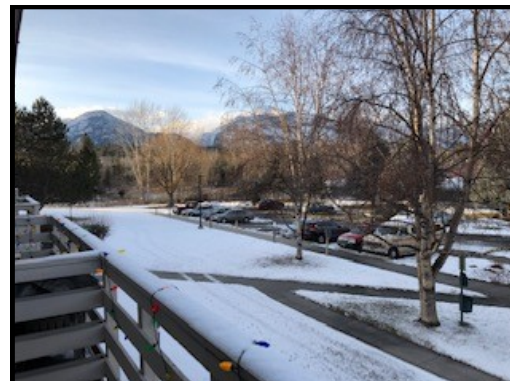

Summertime is the most difficult as the tree outside my window leafs out and shortens my visibility, but in the winter the leaves are gone, and I can see many miles to the western mountains and 50 miles toward Missoula through the bare limbs of the tree.

As winter rolls in and the green of summer turns to the white of winter my vision lessens as snow replaces the leaves. The winter sun melts the snow on the trees and my vision expands as the snow melts and the snow-clad tree returns to bare limbs and I can see beyond the tree.

In the summer when the trees are leafed out you can see the squirrels as they dash through the leafy branches, leaping from limb to limb with grace and ease. They must know every limb of the tree because they dance on limbs I don't think will hold them. Their claws are sharp and their wills are strong. I have yet to see one who did anything wrong.

Oh, to be a squirrel who could leap like Tarzan and swing from limb to limb with grace and ease. I would love to be able to swing through the trees.

A NEW ATTITUDE

1. Give people more than they expect....cheerfully (Philemon 1:21).
2. Don't believe all you hear, spend all you have or sleep all you want.
3. Smile when answering the phone. Callers can hear it in your voice.
4. Remember that great love and great achievements involve great risk.
5. When you say "I'm sorry," look the person in the eye.
6. Be engaged at least six months before you get married.
7. Believe in love at first sight.
8. Spend some time alone (Matthew 14:23).
9. When you say "I love you," mean it (1 Peter 1:22).
10. Never laugh at a dream. People without dreams don't have much.
11. Don't let a little dispute injure a great friendship (Proverbs 27:10).
12. Talk slowly but think quickly (James 1:19).
13. Don't judge people by their relatives (Matthew 7:1).
14. Marry a man/woman you love to talk to (1 Peter 3:7).
15. Do an anonymous kindness each day (Ephesians 4:32).
16. When you lose, don't lose the lesson (James 1:1-3).
17. When you make a mistake, take immediate steps to correct it.
18. In disagreements, fight fairly. No name-calling, threats or bringing up ancient history.
19. Remember the three R's: Respect for self; Respect for others; and Responsibility for all your actions.
20. When someone asks you a question you don't want to answer, smile and ask, "Why do you want to know?"
21. Love deeply and passionately. You might get hurt but it's the only way to live life completely.

TORTURE

The roof of your mouth
suddenly gets attacked.
Neither tongue nor spoon can ease,
and that's a fact.

You're just standing
when your foot catches fire.
Stomping and scraping
just makes you perspire.

The tag on a new shirt
rubs you the wrong way.
Though useless, you rub back
the entire day.

It's in public
the embarrassing ones dawn.
You twist and lift and shift
but they're never gone.

At midday it strikes
the middle of your back.
And you get no help
from corner, shelf or rack.

Suddenly one arises deep in your ear.
A key and paperclip can only get near.

You're never alone
when one invades your nose.
You flick, pinch and pull
but on and on it goes.

Sometimes no matter
how you writhe, squirm or twitch, you can't get relief from...
a torturous itch!

VISIONS OF THE PAST

~Jake Jaquith (Sapphire)~

While traveling this past holiday season, I read a book entitled Horned Snakes and Axle Grease. It is a roadside guide to the history and rock art of Nine Mile Canyon. It dealt with the archaeology, history and rock art of Nine Mile Canyon. This canyon is world-famous for the density, complexity and detail of its prehistoric rock art. It is located in the West Tavaputs Plateau of Central Utah. The text redefines the "Fremont" culture — analyzing the presence of the hunting and gathering people in this spectacular canyon. It explores the struggle these people had making a living in an extremely harsh climate, freezing in the winter, blistering heat in the summer, short on water. Nine Mile Canyon seems to be the kind of place where the best anyone could do was to survive. Yet "ancients" built homes and storage bins and apparently defensive structures, the remains of which are still present hundreds of years later. They created a grand art gallery testifying to their presence in the area.

"Rock Art" has always been of interest to me. Early on in high school and later on in college I read about and explored many of the archaeological sites located in Wisconsin. These sites are similar to the sites in Nine Mile Canyon in that they reference the movement of the hunter-gatherer culture through the development of villages and towns.

I recently read a book, The Mound Builders of Wisconsin, which reignited my interest in seeing places I had visited as a teenager. The Mound Builders in Wisconsin left behind many mounds, large and small, as evidence of their passing. This past year, while visiting family in Wisconsin, I visited Aztalan National Historic Landmark, a site with mounds testifying to the presence of an ancient mound-building society.

A BIT OF HISTORY

Marita Moles, one of our Sapphire residents, shared this photo of some of her historical furniture.

The rocking chair belonged to her mother, Bernice Clifford, who was born in 1879.

The stool was made for the Farm Bureau and its top is twine wrapped with corn husks. It's 84 years old.

MOOSE IN OUR VALLEY

That mangy critter needs some grooming
I have an extra comb and brush
Do you think I could get close to him
And give him a good body trim?

He looks quite docile like a milk cow
However, when he chooses to get angry
He could be very mean and cause my early demise
Let him have the right of way all the time.

Now that I really think about his size and strength
And about his changing behavior
I think it would be prudent to observe him
From the other side of an electric fence.

DEFINITION:
"COWBOY CADILLAC"

Any pickup truck costing more than $30,000. A pickup costing less than $30,000 can qualify if the payments are at least half your take-home pay.

SUBJECT: ABSENTEEISM

It has been brought to my attention that the attendance record of this office is a disgrace to our gracious benefactor who, at your own request, has given you a job. Due to your lack of consideration for your jobs with so fine a reputation, as shown by such frequent absenteeism, it has become necessary for us to revise some of our policies. The following changes are in effect as of now:

SICKNESS:

NO EXCUSE.... We will no longer accept your doctor's statement as proof, as we believe that if you are able to go to the doctor, you are able to come to work.

DEATH (OTHER THAN YOUR OWN):

This is no excuse. There is nothing you can do for them, and we are sure that someone else with a lesser position can attend to the arrangements. However, if the funeral can be held in the late afternoon, we will be glad to let you off one hour early, provided that your share of the work is ahead enough to keep the job going in your absence.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE (FOR AN OPERATION):

We are no longer allowing this practice. We wish to discourage any thoughts that you may need an operation, as we believe as long as you are an employee here, you will need all of whatever you have, and you should not consider having anything removed. We hired you as you are, and to have anything removed would certainly make you less than we bargained for.

DEATH (YOUR OWN):

This will be accepted as an excuse, but we would like two weeks' notice as we feel it is your duty to teach someone else your job.

Also, entirely too much time is being spent in the rest rooms. In the future, we will follow the practice of going in alphabetical order. For instance, those whose names begin with "A" will go from 8:00 to 8:15, "B" will go from 8:15 to 8:30, and so on. If you are unable to go at your time, it will be necessary to wait until the next day when your turn comes again.

STAGE COACH PASSENGERS

(This list of rules for riders of stage coaches was found in an old Durango, Colorado newspaper.)

1. If the stage team runs away or you are pursued by Indians, stay in the coach and take your chances. Don't jump out, for you will be either injured or scalped.
2. In cold weather, abstain from liquor, for you are subject to freezing quicker if under the influence than if you were cold sober. But if you are drinking from a bottle, pass it around. It is the only polite thing to do.
3. Don't smoke a strong cigar or pipe on the stage, especially when women and children are present. If chewing tobacco, spit to the leeward side.
4. Don't swear, snore or lop over on neighbors when sleeping. Let others share the buffalo robes provided in cold weather.
5. Don't shoot firearms for pleasure while en route, as it scares the horses.
6. Don't grease hair with bear grease or buffalo tallow as travel is very dusty.
7. Don't discuss politics or religion.
8. Don't point out sites where robberies or Indians have taken place.
9. And don't imagine you are going on a picnic, for stage travel is inconvenient.

THOUGHTS ON GOSSIP

"Don't be an audience to gossip and rumors. Instead, politely excuse yourself from the conversation. If you disengage from conversations that veer toward gossip, people will get the message and stop gossiping around you.

"Before you speak, stop and T.H.I.N.K. (T—is it true? H—is it helpful? I—is it inspiring? N—is it necessary? K—is it kind?). If the answer to any of those questions is no, then see the previous paragraph."
