The Pastor's Pen...

As we head into the summer season, let me ask you to be intentional about praying for several things that are going on in July at SABC.

First, pray for our God and Country service on Wednesday, July 4. Our nation is in great need of a spiritual awakening, and that won't happen until the church is revived and fulfilling her God-given role in our culture. Pray that God will speak to our church in this time of worship.

Second, pray for our Deeper Groups that are meeting in homes this summer on Sunday nights. Pray that relationships will go deeper, spiritual growth will go deeper, and loving accountability will go deeper. These groups have great potential to change lives.

Third, pray for Vacation Bible School coming up on July 22 – 26. Pray that children will be saved. Pray that teachers will possess the strength, wisdom, and compassion to be effective in their roles. Pray for our VBS leadership (Teresa Griffin, Lou Ellen Stroud, and Donna Tinsley) as they put the finishing touches on their plans for this week of spiritual growth.

Fourth, pray for the next Ecuador trip coming up in late July. Pray that our SABC team will be effective in encouraging and challenging our partner church there to take up the work of sharing the gospel, making disciples, and planting churches in their community and beyond.

Fifth, pray for the deacon elections coming up on July 15. Pray that godly, qualified men will be led of God to step up in providing spiritual leadership and care for our church family. Pray that the church family will be prayerful and biblical in making their decisions about who should serve in this vital role.

Sixth, pray for our new Prayer Guard ministry. As I write, the Prayer Guard consists of 78 individuals who are fasting and praying each week in behalf of SABC. Pray that God will strengthen these individuals to resist the attacks of the enemy as they pray. Pray that their prayers will be powerful and effective in bringing revival to SABC. And pray that God will add to their number when we begin a new Prayer Guard quarter of praying in August. How about you? If you're not currently in the Prayer Guard, is God calling you to go deeper in prayer in behalf of the kingdom? I pray so. Pray that you'll be open to God's call to pray!

I'm so thankful to be the pastor of this wonderful local church. I love you all.

Yours and His,

Pastor Robin
