Adult Education fall opportunities

Falling Upward: Spirituality for the Two Halves of Life

Richard Rohr's book, Falling Upward: Spirituality for the Two Halves of Life, invites us to explore the paradox of how we must 'fall down' in order to 'rise up' and grow further spiritually. This totally counter-intuitive idea of 'falling to rise' is the place in life where many of us simply dig in our heels and 'refuse to go there'. However by doing so, we risk missing the full richness of the Christian spiritual life. Bring your questions and come join our explorations of this baffling paradox of spiritual growth. We'll meet Tues. evenings from 7 - 8:30 p.m. starting Sept. 27th. Please purchase your own copy of the book and feel free to direct any questions to Lisa Gray-Lion at lgraylion@gmail.com. You can sign up for the class at <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f094ba8a87-falling>

Making Sense of the Bible

Would you like to learn more about the Bible, in a format that touches head and heart? We invite you to Making Sense of the Bible: Rediscovering the Power of Scripture Today - by Adam Hamilton.

LeAnn Seto will be leading this class Fridays, 12 - 1:30 p.m. beginning September 30th.

Please order your own book: which is available in a variety of formats: paperback (new and used) or ebook (Cokesbury, Amazon, etc.) or contact LeAnn to figure out how to get one. The conversation together will be enriched by each person coming prepared to reflect. Therefore, please read the first 30 pages (first three chapters) for Sept. 30th.

The basic format of the group is 45 minutes of discussion about the readings; a break; 30 minutes of devotional practice – head and heart yoked together as we deepen our journey as followers of Christ.

"Great class, I would recommend it for everyone interested in a deeper understanding of the Bible. Adam Hamilton raised difficult questions and offers ways to understand Biblical answers. It does not matter if you agree or disagree with his perspective, reading his book helps to focus on questions we often tend to bypass. It was a great class." -- Bob Dick

"Adam Hamilton attempts to honestly wrestle with the difficult questions often raised by thoughtful Christians and non-Christians concerning things taught in the Bible. He does not claim to have all the answers." -- Suzanne Fraker

"I took Disciple 1 many years ago, which was very helpful, but this book laid the groundwork for taking Disciple. I wish I could have read this earlier."

-- John Seto

The group will meet Monday evenings beginning September 12th at 6:30 p.m. Please contact Teresa Steklac for additional information and to sign up.

Orientation to Chelsea First UMC – would you like to learn more about Chelsea First UMC and/or the United Methodist denomination? We will meet for three Thursdays evenings, beginning October 6th. All are welcome!

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Hands4Detroit is an annual day of service and food drive sponsored by the Detroit Renaissance District of the United Methodist Church. Held on the first Sunday of October, Hands4Detroit brings together a thousand volunteers of all ages from across Metro Detroit who, alongside residents of the community, put their hands to work on clean up and beautification projects.

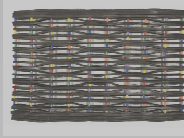

<https://events.rethinkchurch.org/hands4detroit>

To each and every person who filled a backpack, made a donation, and/or extended your hand as the backpacks were blessed: If you need a tax receipt for goods purchased, please contact Jeanne Franks at youth@chelseaumc.org.

UPDATE ON THE AVALON HOUSING PROJECT
Success with the initial application to the Federal Home Loan Bank for funds to put toward the development. The second successful piece thus far is the community based pre-development fund that you have contributed toward, which has allowed Avalon to complete initial environmental and site work that have allowed the project's applications to move forward.

“As we at FIA are working hard to learn the ins and outs of this complicated process and work actively with Avalon Housing to bring this project to fruition, we are grateful to such generous community partners, who have been willing to embark on this ambitious project with us to improve the lives of local struggling people with the addition of a potential of 17 units of affordable housing in Chelsea.”
Sincerely, Nancy Paul
