FOLLOWING JESUS

with Kent & Pam Doehne

The most important decision you will make in this life is deciding who you will follow. It determines the quality of life on earth and the life after. There is no greater life than the one lived following Jesus and it is not enough just to believe that He's real; you must choose to follow Him. This group is for those who are new or young in the faith and will explore the practical choices that are necessary to establish a growing vibrant life that truly "follows Jesus".
