 - This year, our "hands on" activity was in two phases, namely on December 11th, 12th and 13th, at Salvation Army's center in Northeast Washington where we actively participated in "stuffing" the Angel Tree Bags, and then, on December 17th thru the 20th, several members participated in the "distribution" of the bags.

Evangelism Ministry

We assisted the SOME staff on the serving line for lunch from 10:45AM – 1:15PM. A delicious lunch was enjoyed by 369 guests. The guest came in smiling and greeting us and thanking us while they were being served. One guest sang a song, "O, How I Love Jesus".

Ministerial Staff

- Ministerial staff coordinated efforts to purchase and contribute over 25 new backpacks full of new school supplies for DC public school 5th graders in preparation for their new school year. This church-wide effort was in support of the Capitol Hill Group Ministry's 2013 "Back to School Back Pack Program." Collectively, we planned to meet the needs of a full classroom of returning 5th graders. Thanks to strong support from the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church family, we exceeded that goal. Capitol Hill Group Ministry estimated the monetary value of each full, new backpack to be approximately $42.93. Accordingly, this outreach project contributed more than $1,000 in value to the community. More importantly, it garnered good will and gratitude that enhanced our partnership with Capitol Hill Group Ministry.
- The project was also supported by Pastor Chuck Wolfenbarger of the Vineyard Community Church in Franklin, OH, who contributed $100 to our outreach project, after hearing an appeal for support during the Sunday worship service at our church retreat in Deep Creek, MD. Minister McCrea had invited Pastor Wolfenbarger and two of his church's disciples to worship with us. His entire donation was used to purchase new backpacks and new school supplies.

Music Ministry

- Handel's "Messiah" Rehearsals—thirteen (13) churches and two (2) other community organizations participated; relationships were renewed and started through associations with the various participating church aggregations was simply awesome. In fellowship together many expressed that the group was unique, spirited and a pleasure to be with.
- Handel's "Messiah" The Glory Revealed Concert—was held at Eastern High School, Washington, DC in Ward 6; four-hundred and fifty persons were in attendance from across the Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia areas for this awesome evening of a time-honored sacred work; Approximately This event proved multi-generational and multi-cultural, both important aspects of Mt. Moriah's current ministry and strategic plan.
- Handel's "Messiah" Canned Food Drive proved to be an undeniable success. Audience members and concert participants donated 2.532lb.s of canned foods to the Capital Hill Area Food Bank located in Washington, DC.
