Subject: FMBC UPDATE - TUESDAY - AUGUST 5, 2014

Importance: High

LOCAL SCHOOLS (PUBLIC & PRIVATE, INCLUDING FMBC CDCA) OPEN TUESDAY, AUG 5TH

REMEMBER TO OBSERVE SCHOOL ZONES, STOP FOR BUSES & WATCH FOR EXCITED CHILDREN!

PLEASE READ: Huntsville police to enforce "Zero Tolerance" in school zones ~

http://www.al.com/news/huntsville/index.ssf/2014/08/huntsville_police_to_enforce_z.html

"This is the day the LORD has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it." ~ (Psalm 118:24)

CONTINUE TO TRUST GOD MORE FULLY AND OBEY HIM MORE COMPLETELY

BE INTENTIONAL IN: PRAYER, LEADING PERSONS TO CHRIST, BEING FRIENDLY INVITERS & BEING FRIENDLY CHRISTIANS

THOUGHT TO PONDER

Godly character is not the result of good intentions, wishful thinking, some mystical "zap," or even sheer Bible knowledge. It's developed through the self-disciplined application of God's Word at a very basic level, enabled and empowered by God's Spirit.

Habitat for Humanity Community Farmers Market – LOOKS LIKE TODAY (AUGUST 4TH) IS THE LAST DAY!

Huntsville, AL – Habitat for Humanity of Madison County is proud to announce its very first Farmers’ Market located in North Huntsville at 400 Pratt Avenues NW between Church Street and Washington Street near Dallas Mill Deli. The market will be open each Monday from June 2nd through August 4th from 1:00 pm to 6:00 pm. The market space, provided by Habitat for Humanity of Madison County, will feature fresh fruit, vegetables, and preserves locally grown and produced by North Alabama area growers.

Some of the goals of the farmers’ market include allowing low-cost produce to be made available to the community in an effort to promote a more nutritious lifestyle and support local growers and businesses. Another goal is to reflect Habitat for Humanity’s ongoing commitment to breaking the cycle of poverty by building homes, building families, and building neighborhoods in our community

CHUCKLE FOR TODAY: Our supply clerk at the factory was in a dither. A box had been left on the loading dock with this warning printed on it: "Danger! Do Not Touch!" Management was called, and we were told to stay clear of the box until it could be analyzed. When the foreman arrived, he donned safety goggles and gloves, and then he carefully opened the box. Inside were 25 signs that read: Danger! Do Not Touch!
