

Romans 3:1–8 Bible Study Worksheet

God Is Faithful Even When People Are Not

Opening Thought

Think about two people:

- One grew up in church hearing God’s Word every week.
- One grew up with no knowledge of the Bible.

Which person had the advantage?

Why?

Part 1: The Advantage of God’s Word

Romans 3:1–2

Paul asks a question:

“What advantage then hath the Jew?”

According to verse 2, what was their greatest advantage?

What does the phrase “oracles of God” mean?

- The Scriptures / God’s Word
- Religious traditions
- Political power
- Wealth

Why is having God’s Word a privilege?

Personal Reflection

What spiritual advantages have you been given?

(Check any that apply)

- I grew up in church
- I own a Bible
- I hear preaching regularly
- I attend Bible studies
- I have Christian family influence

How should we respond to these privileges?

Part 2: God’s Faithfulness

Romans 3:3–4

Paul asks another question:

“If some did not believe, shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?”

Paul’s answer:

Fill in the blank (verse 4)

“Let God be _____, but every man a _____.”

What does this verse teach us about God’s character?

Discussion

Why do people sometimes reject God because of the failures of other believers?

Part 3: Can Sin Be Justified?

Romans 3:5–8

Some people made a wrong argument:

“If our sin shows God’s righteousness, why should God judge us?”

How does Paul respond?

True or False

Grace means we can sin because God will forgive us.

- True
- False

Explain your answer.

Key Truths from Romans 3:1–8

Write three main truths from today’s lesson.

1.

2.

3.

Personal Application

What is one thing God is teaching you from this passage?

How can you apply this truth this week?

Memory Verse

Romans 3:4

“Let God be true, but every man a liar.”

Write the verse below:

Closing Reflection

Circle the statement that best describes you today:

I need to:

- Appreciate God's Word more
- Trust God's faithfulness more
- Stop excusing sin
- Grow deeper in my walk with God