

August 2017 Update

Don & Mae Wunderink

Dear family and friends,

It's hard to believe we'll be heading to the airport tonight and leaving Peru just shortly after midnight. Nine years of adventures, blessings, friendships, and service in this beautiful country have come to a close. As we leave this place, here are a few items of praise and prayer:

1. Praise God for providing a couple (Allen and Mati Rogers) to replace us, for the opportunity to train them, and for their willingness to begin both ministries (bookkeeper and guesthouse manager) by the first of September.
2. Praise God for a beautiful farewell from our mission team who have become our family here. We have been so blessed to know them.
3. Pray for all the transitions ahead as we find a home, say our final thank you to our supporters, finish with SIM (end of November), and settle in Bradenton, FL.

Looking forward to connecting with many of you in the next few months.

Blessings,
Don & Mae
