Subject: Appointment to College Boards

Date: June 21, 2017

In accordance with ARTICLE IX (SEMINARY AND THEOLOGICAL RELATIONSHIPS) of our Constitution in Sections 1 and 2, as President, I am to appoint a board member to each of the following colleges and schools: LeMoyne-Owen College, the Tennessee School of Religion, the American Baptist College, and the Knoxville Interdenominational Bible Institute.

There were four people who responded to my request for statements of interest. This memorandum is to announce the appointments/recommendations for those Boards:

LeMoyne-Owens

Christopher B. Davis, D. Min. – West Region

Dorian L. McCoy, PhD – East Region

Tennessee School of Religion

Justin R. Holloway, Th.D., D. Min. – West Region

American Baptist College

William Terry Ladd, III, M. Div. – East Region

Knoxville Interdenominational Bible Institute

Joe B. Maddox, D. Min. – East Region

No one from the Middle Region expressed an interest in serving in a College Board capacity.

I have asked these men to give their full support to the college assigned and to look for opportunities for our Convention to partner with the college to promote both agendas. I want to thank these brethren for giving themselves to this task.

For American Baptist College, the process requires me to make the recommendation to the President of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc. President Dr. Jerry Young will make the appointment to the Board, should he agree. The letter of recommendation has been sent to Dr. Young.
