Are You a Sheep A Goat or a Wolf?

Sheep:

Sheep love still waters. They don't like to be agitated and they love to be fed. They love the Word of God. They love worship. They love other sheep and they love their shepherd. They love shearing time, or the time that they make an offering to the Lord. The more sheep are sheared, the more their wool grows. It is the process of sowing and reaping. Sheep are different from goats and wolves. They are peacemakers and will not trouble the waters that nurture those around them.

God is trying to develop a flock of sheep who will honor Him, by honoring others in the flock, by obeying the will of the Chief Shepherd and by honoring the Under Shepherd God has placed with them.

Are you a sheep? Next week, Goats...

Be blessed,
PAS
