

St. Titus One Power Word

April 2014

“Glow”

Ah, April at last is here and I for one am glad it is. This Winter has been one for the record books for sure. I have been through a lot of Winters, but this one as far as the cold and the snow has been brutal. (Oh wait, that’s Winter).

“Glow”

When we think of the burdens of Winter (even spiritually), Our God has always given us the ability to “Glow”. What I mean by “Glow” is that no matter what the situations, we should remember to allow the Light of God to shine on through.

“Glow”

We have the power to “Glow” no matter what. I am so glad that “I can do all things, through Christ..”, So I can at any time, in the face of anything still “Glow”. “Greater is he that is within me...”. I don’t have the time nor the efforts to waste wallowing in the mess with stress or duress.

“Glow”

The Word of God says to “let your light shine that you may glorify your father which is In Heaven”.

I know you may say that sometimes it’s harder than others. That is the very reason why you must stay in the congregation of the saints. (“Iron sharpens iron”) Yes there are many demons in the people at the Church, (just as they’re in you) but this is why we have to be in the Church and “Glow” anyhow! “Glow” to grow.

Remember our God is still ABLE.
