

NCS Board of Trustees 2012-2013

Simon VanderWoude (Chairman of the Board)-Simon and his family attend Crossroads Community Church. Simon owns a dairy testing business and Legacy Feed & Fuel--a convenience and implement store. Simon and his wife Krisha have four children, Janneke, Caleb, Elijah and Elsie. Simon applies his business acumen on the Foundation Board and as Personnel Committee chair.

Bill Augsburger-Bill and his family attend Sovereign Grace Fellowship. Bill recently retired from the Nampa Police Department after serving over thirty years in public service capacities, most recently as the chief of police. Bill is married to Melody and they have three children-Chelsea (2008 NCS graduate), Daniel and Elias. Bill serves on the Building and Grounds, Personnel, and Enrollment Committees.

Kent Berggren-Kent and his family attend College Church of the Nazarene. Kent is a graduate of Northwest Nazarene University and is an Internet Development Manager for MWI Veterinary Supply. Kent and his wife Stacey have two daughters, Kenzi and Karli. He serves on the Development and Finance Committees and as Chair of the Proud Committee.

Ed Castledine-Ed and his family attend Lakeview Bible Church. Ed works for St. Luke's Hospital in public relations and development. Ed and his wife Alison have five children, Katie, Daniel, Jackson, Kelsey and Megan. Ed's contribution to the Board includes providing marketing and fund raising expertise on the Development (Chair), Finance, Personnel, and Proud Committees.

Todd Goode (Vice-Chair of the Board) -Todd and his family attend Nampa First Church of the Nazarene. Todd is owner and general manager of First Choice Collision Auto Repair. Todd is presently serving on the Nampa Christian School Board and has served for three years on the NCS Foundation Board of Directors. Todd is married to Janna and they have three children-Ashley, Emily, and Lilly. Todd serves on the Auction Committee and is Chair of the Building and Ground and the Foundation Committees.

Mary Langdon-Mary and her family attend Calvary Chapel in Boise. Mary works for the Mann Mortgage Company and volunteers with the food pantry at her church. She is married to Scott and they have three children—Camren, Kayla, and Christian. Mary serves on the Auction and Proud Scholarship Committees. Mary comes to this role with extensive financial and organizational skills and will likely fill the role of Board Secretary in the years ahead.

Ryan Martin-Ryan and his family attend Early Church at Nampa First. Ryan is a realtor and owner of Martin and Company out of the firm of Keller Williams Realty. Ryan has recently served on several community boards in the Treasure Valley. Ryan is married to Angie (Van Manen) and they have two children-Carlee and Gracie. Ryan Martin serves on the Development, Building & Grounds, Auction, and Enrollment Committees.

Bill Savage (Treasurer of the Board)-Bill and his family attend Ten Mile Christian Church. Bill is the CEO of Saltzer Medical Group, one of the largest health care employers in the State. Bill and his wife Debbie have two children, Troy and Seth. With Bill's extensive expertise in accounting, he fills important roles on the Finance (Chair), Financial Aid, Foundation, and Auction Committees.

Melaney Taylor (Secretary of the Board)-Melaney and her family attend the Boise Church of Christ. Melaney is a graduate of the U of I. She is the Fellowship Ministry Team leader at church and an NCS community volunteer. Melaney and her husband, Ted, have three children, Tiffany, Tawny, and Thomas. She contributes expertise with the high school drama production, PTF, and serves on the Financial Aid (Chair), Auction (Chair), Personnel and Enrollment (Chair) Committees.

NCS Administrators

Eric Forseth (Superintendent)-Eric came to Nampa Christian Schools in 2009. Previously, he served as Board Chair for Nampa Christian Schools. Eric and his wife Kim have two children, Lindsay and Nathan. Eric's professional background is in educational administration, enrollment and marketing.

Kevin Rex (Middle School/High School Principal)-Kevin came to Nampa Christian Schools in 2007. Previously, he served at Christian schools in California. Kevin and his wife Julie have two children, Nikolas and Nathan. Kevin brings a solid background of teaching and administrative experience to his role as high school and middle school principal.

Julie Vermillion (PreK-6th Principal)-Julie started at NCS as an elementary teacher at the Orchard campus and most recently she has served as vice principal at the 7-12 Flamingo campus. Previous to serving at NCS, she was the lead administrator at an Idaho charter school and served in a similar capacity in Oklahoma. Julie and her husband Brian have one son, Jesse.