

Conference Guest Speaker

We are honored to have Samantha Means as our speaker this year. She brings with her a wealth of experience and perspectives for our encouragement and consideration.

Samantha Means is a U.S. Marine Corps veteran and has experienced more than twenty-five years of relational trauma and spent more than fifteen years in various forms of counseling.

Since 2012 Samantha has written four novels and three non-fiction books about healing from trauma in relationship with Jesus, self, and others. She has a bachelor's degree in human development and a master's in divinity and spent the last ten years traveling the world coming alongside the hurting. She's worked with the elderly in the end-of-life stages, troubled youth in drug rehabilitation, women in the throes of sex trafficking, the homeless, Middle Eastern refugees, and more.

Currently she's the trauma and healing department head at a Christian counseling agency, and operates a trauma-focused equine assisted counseling program with Embrace Equine Ministry in north Idaho. In her spare time she can be found on her horse or with her dogs in the mountains.

Established in 1973, the International Conference of Police Chaplains (ICPC) is a 501(C)3 organization providing global training to law enforcement chaplains (volunteer or paid), liaison officers, and agency administrators

Departments, regardless of size, receive the benefits and information needed to develop and/or enhance their chaplaincy program. Training provides continuing education units (CEU) and equips attendees to better serve law enforcement officers, families and communities. Available to all, our quarterly publication, The Journal, provides current articles and other information pertinent to law enforcement chaplaincy.

Member benefits include access to educational material and a network of support, as well as:

Lending Library—available through the Member's Only Section.

Credentialing - Members may substantiate their ongoing education by pursuing the following levels: Basic, Liaison, Senior, Master, Diplomate, and Fellow (see our Credentialing pamphlet for compliance requirements).

ICPC provides support and assistance to law enforcement agencies in establishing or improving chaplaincy programs.

For more information about ICPC, such as how to become a member, or receiving a pamphlet outlining Starting a Law Enforcement Chaplaincy Program, contact:

Region 2 Director, Mike Neil

On behalf of our ICPC regional leadership, I want to welcome your participation at our Regional Training Seminar in Olympia. This has been a challenging two years with Covid. Last year our regular location at the Cannon Beach Conference Center was closed for operations. ICPC has a new policy to move the RTS around the Region and so we are honoring their request. It will be great to be together again and to see old friends.

Registration & Payment: ICPC Member Click Link in Email
