FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Thanks to our Visionary Ministry for their ongoing efforts in sponsoring our Whole Family Conference. On every Wednesday this month, we join together and study from the overall theme of "Adapting to a New and Now Normal". The church functions as a family, models family life, and cares for the family members within it....even now....especially now. This is what our Whole Family Conference is all about. Let's make sure that on the remaining Wednesdays in October, we support these virtual events. Don't miss your blessings! Mark your calendars, First Calvary, and plan to attend. It is a time of enjoyable and enlightening family discussion.

We will also celebrate our 136th Church Anniversary this month. 136 years is most certainly a long time and we have been a staple in the West End Community from the very beginning. We have so much to be thankful for! Just think about it, I have served this congregation 29 of those 136 years, What A Mighty God! Please plan to join us for worship with us at our usual time, for now, at 9:30 a.m. on October 25th. Also remember, it is through our Sacrificial offerings that we are able to help strengthen our Operational expenses. As you learned in Church Conference we are doing great but better we can be because the reality is that more is being provided by less people... but God can do things like that! So remember this is our last Sacrificial Sunday for the year, don't forget that we are asking each adult member to give a Sacrificial Offering of $150.00 above your tithes on this special day. Remember, when you give freely by sharing and sowing into the ministry work of First Calvary Baptist Church, the blessings of God flow.

As we get close to November, all ministry elections should still be held. Please send your elected, selected, appointed, anointed Ministry Leaders to our Church Clerk, Sister Mary Gilmer, at wibbie.gilmer@gmail.com. I need all leaders to be prayerful because accountability is a must....even now....especially now! Let's get the right people in the right place. I reiterate a sentiment that I have shared with you in the past. I truly believe that a healthy church is a growing church, a learning church, a loving church and a giving church. So, First Calvary, let's give, let's love, let's learn, let's grow, and LET'S GO....even now....especially now! Continue to be safe....continue to connect with us....and continue to remember that we do what we do so that we can continue to be AN EXCITING CHURCH EXCITED ABOUT ITS MISSION!

THE DEACON'S MESSAGE

There will be days in all of our lives that will require great courage and strength. Some days, our faith in God's abilities can be found in the crosshairs or aiming of the enemies' weapons. The goal of the enemy is to strike fear into our hearts, thereby clouding our minds with doubt about what God can or cannot, will or will not do on our behalf. God does not want us to feel as if we are children that have been abandoned by Him. Therefore, when we call out to Him, He responds. Psalm 138:3, NASB forewarns us of the results we can expect when we seek the help of the Almighty Living God. "I called, you answered me; you made me bold with strength in my soul." Whatever strength you need to make it through your days, God can provide. God knows that all we need to be able to hold on for victory, is to have our souls emboldened by His spirit, which will produce in us an unwavering faith as we wait for Him to come through.

The Parenting Tip

The Power of Teachable Moments

A rainbow, a tube of toothpaste, a holiday dinner — how can these ordinary things be used to teach children about the Bible? They can all be used to illustrate a "teachable moment." The teachable-moment method of faith building enlightens your children about God in a way that captures their attention and changes their lives.

No lectures. No manuals.

No rolling of the eyes. No kidding!

Teachable moments are perfect for working or single parents who don't have a lot of free time to build a spiritual legacy. They can be incorporated into any family routine, no matter how busy. Teachable moments require no preparation. In fact, they often work best when you're driving in the car or just having plain old fun with your kids. But whenever you do have a chance, also try planning a teachable moment. Either way, your children will feel affirmed and will learn biblical principles that they'll always remember!

Three Ingredients to Teaching Without Preaching

Parents can deliberately and intentionally teach their children biblical truths using teachable moments — and the children can enjoy it. It's not some fanciful dream or nebulous ideal you hear about only on the 700 Club. And you don't have to be a natural-born teacher to use them. You just have to try out teachable moments and work with them for a few weeks, and soon you'll know the secrets of teaching without preaching. A teachable moment requires three simple ingredients. The first is an open relationship between the parent and child. Second, you need a catalyst — an event or object that illustrates the spiritual point. A catalyst is the conversation starter, the reason the teachable moment is occurring at that specific time and place. Often the catalyst is an everyday object like a bridge or a mousetrap. Or it can be some big milestone in your child's life, like baptism. Third, a teachable moment requires a biblical truth. The truth can be a Bible fact, a truth about God's character, or insights into living a life of faith. You can gather a lot of truths through personal Bible study. -Marianne K. Hering
