DECEMBER NEWSLETTER

SUNDAY MORNING WORSHIP LIVESTREAM SERVICE AT 8:00AM

Merry Christmas

To our beloved brothers and sisters of New Prospect Missionary Baptist Church, we are all living in a very stressful time in our world due to the pandemic. In spite of these mounting challenges, we must remember that God is still in charge and wants us to continue to love and respect each other.

Please remember to be respectful of others in all circumstances, especially to our church administrative staff handling concerns related to church matters.

God bless you and keep you in His loving care.

Beloved New Prospect Missionary Baptist Church Family:

Grace and Peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. As we approach the 2020 Advent and CHRISTmas Season, our minds should be remarkably sober and our hearts should be acutely sensitive to the reality that we are currently living in unprecedented and unique times. This year, we have witnessed a diversity of situations in our world at-large that have significantly altered the way that we think, move, and live. Let’s face it, we have lived through a pandemic, protests, and public and private peril throughout this year. Our personal patience and collective endurance have been stretched to the maximum in a variety of contexts this year. But, here we are! We are still here! We made it to Advent. Praise God.

Advent is a season of waiting. The English word Advent derives its meaning from the Latin adventus, meaning “arrival” or “coming.” The advent primarily in view each December is the first coming of Jesus, but we also look forward to His second coming. As we celebrate this season, it is our prayer that you remember that we live between the already and the not yet. Jesus has already come to save us from our sins and Jesus will come again to consummate God’s ultimate redemptive plan. In the meantime, let us remember that Jesus is our constant in a constantly changing world. Let us recall that because He lives we can face whatever life throws at us. We may not experience the Christmas that we expect but we will have the opportunity to embrace afresh the savior that we need.

Happy Holy Advent! Merry CHRIST-mas! Happy New Year.
