Dear New Prospect Church Family:

It is hard to believe that the Season of Advent is upon us again. It is in this season that we recall, recollect, recount, and wrestle with the humbling reality that, long ago, our God became one of us to save us from our sins; however, there's more to the story. We have celebrated and incorporated this Christian tradition known as Advent as a staple in our local church context for many years as a way of teaching the importance of Christ's nativity and His second coming. But, there's still more! In the Christian life, in our concern to make sound doctrinal points we often rush to expound upon Jesus's death, burial, and resurrection while neglecting His living. Therefore, during Advent let us take time to appreciate that Jesus once lived victoriously in this broken and painful world just as we now do.

During Advent, let us remember that Jesus experienced many of the joys and sorrows that we experience in this world, yet he remained strong. In light of that reality, let us also engage an intentional imitatio Christi (Latin, Imitation of Christ). During Advent we should strive to become missionaries of hope, love, faith, healing, and forgiveness; for, we will discover that if we can practice these virtues during Advent we can carry them into the rest of our lives.

*Have a happy Holy Advent, Merry Christmas, and blessed New Year.
New Prospect Executive Pastoral Team & New Prospect Leadership Team*
