Report from Global Action International School of Theology - Ken Hoole, Vice President

Haiti had their largest graduation with over 350 students on seven campuses receiving their Certificates, Diplomas, Bachelors or Masters degrees in Theology. Two more campuses are being added for the 2019-2020 school year.

Even with all the unrest in Haiti, God continues to open opportunities for Haitian leadership. Global Action has tremendous favor from the Lord, ministering to over 3,000 pastors who touch tens of India is going through struggles, but Christ's Church is moving forward. To assist ministry expansion in the states in Southern India. We are selecting Directors or Overseers. Dr. Gently Johnson is working in the state of Tamil Nadu, going from Chennai to the Southern tip of India. Population: 67+ million. He is a powerful Pastor-Evangelist and was our interpreter while we were in India. He has two Bible Schools training pastors and leaders. We are establishing relationships to help train and make leaders stronger in the state of Andhra Pradesh.

New Schools

*Three schools have begun in different locations in Cameroon, West Africa.

*A new school was launched August 25th in Tanzania, East Africa

*God has provided contacts on Andaman Islands, in the Bay of Bengal where a Global Action School of Theology will be established.
