How to Talk to Adult Kids about Your Finances

Presenter: Dave Shetler

This workshop identifies specific issues parents should discuss with their children as related to their finances, estate planning, health and health care provisions, and other end-of-life issues from a faith perspective. We'll talk about what to include in an estate directory, including a checklist of important contacts, and basic information on creating advance directives.

Help! There's Too Much Month at the End of My Money

Presenter: Nevin Dulabaum

Do you have trouble making ends meet at the end of a pay period? Look at cash management and budgeting from a Christian perspective, with an eye toward stewardship and simple living. Get to know the difference between financial planning and budgeting, and find out how to do both.

Missional Budget Planning: Not Your Parent's Stewardship!

Presenter: Andrew Wright

"If you want people to give to your church, first offer them a compelling vision of the good that their giving will accomplish. This workshop encourages a change for many in the church in how they view stewardship." How do you create excitement about stewardship while maintaining the foundations of our faith tradition and mission?

De-mystifying Clergy Taxes (January only)

Presenter: Deb Oskin

This workshop provides an overview of federal clergy tax rules. Special attention is placed on the effect of housing allowances on clergy taxes. Plenty of Q&A time is built in! Come get your questions answered regarding this complex subject.

Extreme Couponing (February only)

Presenter: Eu-Det Crawford

Come learn how to organize your coupons to get the best deals at the grocery and department stores. Eu-Det has spent extensive time on this subject and if you learn and follow her techniques you will definitely see them pay off in the check out.
