

Brian Porzio - bio

Arizona Guys Conference

Brian Porzio grew up in Tucson, AZ and attended Central Bible College in Springfield, MO. After graduating in 2008, he began to pursue the calling that God gave him when he was 13 years old. Just a few years later, Brian is a full time evangelist here in the United States, preaching and speaking in schools, camps, retreats, churches, conferences, fundraisers and a number of other venues.

Brian has a passion to see students cultivate an authentic and intimate relationship with God. His candid style, mixing humor with bold proclamation will both challenge and inspire students to draw closer to God and discover His purpose for their lives.

Brian currently resides in Los Angeles, CA and spends his time off the road reaching out to people in the entertainment industry with the love and hope of Jesus Christ. Brian has no pets, but he does have a scooter that is near and dear to him.

Truncated bio:

Brian is a recent graduate of Central Bible College and has a heart to see revival come to the United States of America. He currently resides in Los Angeles, CA in order to reach out to the entertainment industry with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Brian also travels and preaches as an evangelist/inspirational speaker to see people encounter the power and love of God in this generation. His candid style and bold proclamation of the Word will challenge, encourage and inspire you in your relationship with God and others.