Where did you see yourself in the descriptions of different types of anger?

The Bible tells us that God is angry on many occasions. When you think about the Old Testament, what is it that stirs up God’s wrath? Look up the word wrath in a word search of the Bible and read a few passages.

Read Matthew 22:37-39

What does this have to do with God’s wrath in the Old Testament?

Jesus also became angry—turning over the money changer tables.

Read Mark 3:1-6

What was it that angered Jesus?

Anger when it is a holy emotion has love and justice as its goal. How do both of those things show up in Jesus anger at the Pharisees?
What are some of the different expressions of anger that Pastor David mentioned in the sermon? What are some others?

Is it ever proper for us to be angry? How should we handle our anger? What should our goal be?

We are a peacemaking church in that we have committed to biblical principles of peacemaking as a practice that we wish to keep as part of our everyday life as a body of believers. The goal of peacemaking is to bring glory to God in the midst of conflict. How is that possible?

Close by reading I John 4:9-11

What does this passage say to you about peacemaking? How does it relate to the call to forgive in Matthew 5:21-26?