

There are two very interesting conversations in Christian circles I could eagerly share with you this month. One is the European Catholics grappling with various translations to the Lord's Prayer. You might think the prayer Jesus gave his disciples 200 years ago would be above controversy. Yet, the Spanish, French, and the Italian Catholic's are changing the sixth petition: "Do not submit us to temptation" to "Let us not enter into temptation." Pope Francis, who is at odds with Vatican theologians, agrees with the change, saying, "A father does not push someone into temptation." I also wanted to comment on the passing of Billy Graham, who Martin Marty said in 2013, would be with Jonathan Edwards and Martin Luther King Jr, part of the Mount Rushmore of American religious history. Instead I decided to share more local concerns.

The Session has been very busy with important leadership duties during the past two months. Since some of you are interested in process, "how the sausage is made." To catch you up on what we have been working on, I had our Clerk, Amy Littlefield, write up some extended Session highlights.

It is joy to serve with you, James Brassard

Session Highlights February & March 2018

Mexico Mission Trip

Justin reported that the July mission trip to Mexico now has 30 people (youth and adults) signed up to go at this time. Besides Scrip sales, the youth will be conducting several other fundraising opportunities, The Mission council will consider a congregation-wide appeal for support.

Music Search Update

The Session appointed a search committee in February for the Music Director/Accompanist position. Members are Elder Jen Woods (chair), Elder Steve Donoian, Elder Bob Brutout, and At-Large Member Trudy Neff. Astrid Jonas, Worship Council Chair, is currently reviewing resumes and sending them to the search committee for further review. Jen Woods reported to the Session at the March meeting that two phone interviews have been conducted, with both candidates coming in for personal interviews. Furthermore, another phone interview is pending. Resumes continue to be received.

Nominating Committee Begins Process

Nominating Committee Chair Bridget Peters will now be starring the process of selecting new Elders and Deacons after Easter. The 2018 Nominating Committee members are Yvonne Tang, Skip Oates, Peggy Oates, and Bob Hiller.

The Session discussed a revised Time and Talent Survey for distribution to the membership during their February and March meetings, approving final edits. The Survey will be distributed on March 25 and responses will be received until April 15th. The Time and Talent Survey is a useful tool for committees to recruit volunteers and update records on volunteer interests. Look for promotions for the survey during upcoming worship services.

Thank you from Margaret Wolfe

My family and I so appreciate everything done for us recently – the cards, flowers, food, gifts, all the calls and visits, the rides to Genesis Waugh Chapel, and especially all the prayers. CCPC is blessed having so many caring people and James, a wonderful pastor. We thank you so much for everything. Please remember to keep David in your prayers.

Holy Week Schedule

March 25 — Palm Sunday

Jesus carefully orchestrates his much-anticipated arrival into the capital city of Jerusalem. His rowdy band of followers make so much noise, the Pharisees, always nervous about arousing the Romans, told him to tone down the hoopla. Jesus responds that even if he could, "The very stones would cry out." Luke 19:29-44. The children are included in the opening processional.

Maundy Thursday, March 29 at 7:30 PM

On the night Jesus was arrested, he inaugurated a ceremony through which the church would remember him. In John's version of the Last Supper (John 13:1-17. 31-35), when Jesus says, "Do this," he is not referring to breaking bread, sharing a common cup of wine, and remembering him through this symbolic act. Instead, he says, "Wash feet." What example is Jesus setting for us?

Good Friday, March 30 at 7:30 PM

We will offer a Tenebrae Service of the Passion readings and the extinguishing of candles. The service will include a rich variety of music: choral, instrumental, and congregational songs.

April 1 — Easter Sunday The Resurrection of the Lord

7:00 AM Sunrise Service in the Memorial Garden

We will read John 20, that focuses on the personal encounter the Risen Lord had with Mary Magdalene. Mary moves from weeping, to turning towards Jesus, to announcing the incredible news that Jesus is alive. We will conclude with communion.

The Session will host a hot Easter breakfast of scrambled eggs, pancakes, sausage, fruit, juice, and coffee from 7:30-9:00AM. A continental breakfast will be served from 10:00-11:00AM to accommodate families arriving for the Children's Easter program.

The Children's Easter Program, (including Easter Egg Hunt, Blossoming of the Cross, and the Easter lesson) is at 10:00AM. Families are encouraged to be early & share breakfast.

Our Services in Celebration of the Resurrection will be held at 9:00 and 11:00AM. We will sing the classic Easter hymns and enjoy special choral and instrumental music. The sermon title is "When Does Your Life Really Begin? The text is the resurrection of Jesus' friend, Lazarus, in John 11: 1-53.

Lenten Readings

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

A Note to the Congregation

Dear CCPC Congregation,

The search is well underway for the new choir director/accompanist for the 11am blended worship service. I am the chairperson of the search committee and the other members of the committee include Steve Donoian, Bob Brutout, and Trudy Neff. We are in the process of conducting both phone and in-person interviews with several well -qualified candidates. We are focusing our search on finding someone to lead the adult choir and bell choir, build a children's choir, and participate in some crossover work with the 9am contemporary service. Please don't hesitate to direct any questions or concerns you may have to me or any member of the search committee.

Thank you,

Jen Woods

One Great Hour of Sharing

Sharing Brings Joy

Sharing God's love with our neighbors-in-need around the world by providing relief from natural disasters, food for the hungry, and support for the poor and oppressed.

Since 1949, Presbyterians have joined with millions of other Christians through One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) to share God's love with people experiencing need. Your gifts support ministries of disaster response, refugee assistance and resettlement, and community development that help people find safe refuge, start new lives, and work together to strengthen their families and communities. Recognizing that the hope we have in Christ is lived out in our hope for one another, we respond with gifts that help our sisters and brothers around the world find the hope for a brighter future.

Presbyterian Disaster Assistance / Presbyterian Hunger Program / Self-Development of People

Your gifts to OGHS mean that you too are present, bringing healing and hope to some of the world's most desperate situations. Never underestimate what a difference you can make. Let us thank God for giving us the opportunity to share our gifts so generously.

CCPC will be joining the efforts of OGHS during worship services on Palm Sunday, March 25 and Easter Sunday, April 1.

Thank you for your support.

A Trip to the Space Station

Rick Arnold, son of Nancy and Dick, has been in Baikonur, Kazakhstan, since March 4, 2018. He is one of the team members on the Expedition 55 Mission who are scheduled for a March 21 at 1:44 EDT launch from the Baikonur Cosmodrome aboard the Russian Soyuz MS-08 spacecraft.

After a two-day journey, they will arrive at the station and join fellow NASA astronaut Scott Tingle, Expedition 55 Commander Anton Shkaplerov of Roscosmos, and Norishige Kanai of the Japan Aerospace Exploration Agency.

During a planned five-month mission, the crew will take part in about 250 space station science investigations and technology demonstrations to advance our knowledge of Earth, space, physical and biological sciences. Science conducted in the orbiting laboratory continues to yield benefits for humanity and will enable future long-duration human and robotic exploration into deep space.

NASA selected Arnold as an astronaut in 2004. The Maryland native worked in marine sciences and as a teacher in his state and overseas, in countries including Morocco, Saudi Arabia, and Indonesia. He spent 12 days, 19 hours and 29 minutes in space during space shuttle Discovery's STS-119 mission to deliver the final pair of power-generating solar array wings and truss element for the space station. During that assembly mission to the station, he conducted two spacewalks totaling 12 hours, 34 minutes.

Arnold will continue NASA's Year of Education on Station, arriving at the station shortly after NASA astronaut and former educator Joe Acaba departs. Arnold will participate in dozens of educational events while on orbit.

Arnold, and two other crew members are scheduled to return to Earth in late August.

You can follow Rick on social media at https://twitter.com/astro_ricky

Please pray for Rick and his team.
