

Duties of Stewardship Ministry

The Stewardship Ministry promotes responsible and generous Christian stewardship. It shall be responsible for:

- (a) Developing within the membership an understanding of the meaning of Christian Stewardship.
- (b) Directing the financial program of the church so that it will not only supply the financial needs, but also provide a means of spiritual enrichment for each one participating.
- (c) Keeping the congregation informed of the Church's Stewardship objectives.
- (a) Planning and implementing the annual stewardship campaign.
- (b) Encouraging endowment for future development of the Church and its work worldwide.
- (c) Preparing the annual church budget, which includes:
 - (i) Reviewing salaries and allowances of all employees, ministers, and contract personnel;
 - (ii) Reviewing requests of functional Ministries/ Committees;
 - (iii) Proposing recommendations to the Church Board for changes as necessary.