THIS WEEK'S SERMON

Sermon: "Recall"

Scripture: John 21: 1-6, 9-12, 15-17

Synopsis: I remember watching Billy Graham crusades with my Dad as a young boy growing up. After every sermon, Graham would give the invitation and the choir, led by baritone soloist George Beverly Shea, would begin singing all the verses of "Just As I Am." Preaching to a sold out arena, Graham would say something like, "From the first row, it might take you one minute; from the second row, two minutes; and from the third, three minutes; but we'll wait," he said. "You just come. Your friends and family will wait." And for the next five minutes as everyone sang more verses of the hymn than I knew existed, they did come. Hundreds of them. Streaming from all over. Coming to the altar. In my years of ministry, I've never had that kind of response to one of my sermons. Later, I learned that some of those people who came didn't come as first-time Christians. They came in response to a sense of new-found urgency to rededicate their lives to Jesus. I seem to remember that some folk criticized Graham for this. Claimed that his revivals were more show than substance—that not many were saved during those crusades, only re-saved, re-dedicated, recalled. And yet, why should it matter? It seems to me that in our long journey of faith with Jesus we all need such moments of recommitment. This second week of Easter, we remember not only Jesus' resurrection, but the continuing claim it has upon our lives, our church. We remember that no matter the Easters since our baptism, Jesus still calls us to follow him.

Senior Recognition

There are journals in the Fellowship Hall for members of the congregation to write notes and well wishes to our seniors. Senior Recognition is scheduled for Sunday, May 5th. During worship we will take time to honor our seniors. A luncheon will follow for the seniors and their families.

NURSERY WORKERS NEEDED

As of now, we have not hired a new caregiver for the nursery. We ask that you continue to think of those in your circle that would be interested in a position on Sunday mornings from 8:30 – 12:30. We would prefer to hire two reliable helpers, but need one as soon as possible. We appreciate all of our members who are volunteering their Sundays to help us through this time. Please continue to pray for the person or persons who might be wonderful with our children. Thanks very much.

— Laurie Dodd, Personnel Chairman

Special Day Offering

April 7th – 28th is when we collect Special Day Offering. Last year we raised over $5,500. Our goal this year is to collect as much or more than last year. It is a great opportunity to reach out and help those who are experiencing health epidemics, hunger, and malnutrition. As individuals, we can help by contributing money and sending it to our national missions board. Please pray about this opportunity and write a check to FCCG. In the memo line, write Special Day Offerings. Thank you for your generosity.

2013 GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JULY 13-17, 2013 • ORLANDO, FLORIDA

The 2013 General Assembly theme, "Lord, Teach Us to Pray," calls us to pray deeply for God's direction, strength, courage, and initiative in mission. It offers the opportunity for praying communities of Disciples to connect with each other as the family of God. Oh, Lord, as we move together toward wholeness, teach us to pray.

Sharon
