Article III
Leadership

3.1 PSC shall be led by a Board of Directors under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

3.2 A two-thirds majority vote of approval by the standing Board of Directors is required for admittance to the board. A person shall not be considered for directorship who is not in agreement with the Mission Statement, Statement of Faith and the Statement of Principles of PSC. Such membership in the board shall be for three-year period.

3.3 Members may be re-elected by the Board of Directors at the time of expiration of their current term. Such applications are subject to the same provisions as paragraph 3.2.

3.4 The Executive Director shall serve as a consultant to and ex officio member of the Board of Directors during PSC tenure.

Article IV
Board of Directors

4.1 The business and property of PSC shall be managed by the Board of Directors. This board shall consist of not less than five and not more than twelve members.

4.2 Meetings

a. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the corporation shall be held in January of each year. Officers shall be elected to the Board of Directors at the annual meeting and will hold office for that calendar year.

b. Regular meetings. The Board of Directors shall hold regular meetings at the Pregnancy Service Center offices, or other location as may be notified, on the second Tuesday of each month.

c. Special meetings. Special meetings, as deemed necessary for the competent management of the affairs of the corporation, shall be held at the offices of the corporation, or other location as may be notified, as called by the President or two members of the Board of Directors by giving five days' written notice to all directors of the date, time, and place of the meeting unless a waiver is signed by members.

4.3 Each member of the board shall possess one vote in matters before the board. Voting by proxy shall not be allowed.

4.4 Board members may participate in a meeting by means of conference telephone, group email communications, Instant Messenger (IM), or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating receive the same information or can hear one another.

4.5 The majority of the members of the Board of Directors must be in attendance in order to constitute a quorum.

4.6 A member may be removed by a two-thirds majority vote of the board at any regular or specially called meeting of the board.

Article V
Officers

5.1 PRESIDENT: The President of the board shall execute all instruments in its behalf when authorized by the Board of Directors, preside at all meetings of the board, call such meetings as they deem necessary, and shall perform such duties inherent to such office.

5.2 VICE-PRESIDENT: The Vice President of the board shall act for the president in his/her absence, and perform such other duties as the President shall direct.

5.3 SECRETARY: The Secretary shall keep minutes of board meetings and maintain the records of the board and of the corporation, and shall perform such other acts as the President shall direct.

5.4 TREASURER: The Treasurer shall account for all funds belonging to the corporation, see that all obligations are paid, maintain bank accounts in depositories, render financial reports at all regularly called meetings of the board, and make such reports and post all files as may be required by law.

Article VI
Committees

6.1 The Board of Directors shall function as the Executive Committee, along with the Executive Director, who shall serve in an advisory capacity.

6.2 Other working committees deemed necessary for the ongoing business of the corporation may, from time to time, be appointed by the Board of Directors.

Article VII
Checks, Loans, and Deposits

7.1 All resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors, pursuant to any business on behalf of the corporation, under this article, must be approved by the majority vote of the board present at the meetings in which said vote is taken.

7.2 The Board of Directors may authorize, by a majority vote of board members at a meeting any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

7.3 No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the corporation and no evidence of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a unanimous vote of all board members. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

7.4 All checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation shall be signed by two officers or agents of the corporation and in such a manner as determined from time to time by resolutions of the Board of Directors.

7.5 All funds of the corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited at a minimum on a bi-weekly basis to the credit of the corporation in such bank, trust companies, or other depositories as the Board of Directors may elect.

7.6 No officer, employee, or agent of the corporation shall have the power to bind the corporation by contract or otherwise unless authorized to do so by the Board of Directors.

Article VIII
