Using Our Story for His Glory by Pastor Sheri Leming

I recently shared a series about living our lives for the glory of God. In Isaiah 43:7 God says that we were created for His glory. And I Corinthians 10:31, Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. Well, that pretty much covers it, doesn't it? Is this a reality in our lives? Too often we compartmentalize our lives. We seem to understand the importance of living for the glory of God better when we are sitting in church on Sunday. We may have the greatest of intentions while we are listening to the sermon. But unfortunately these intentions can quickly fade from view by the time we reach the church parking lot. Why is that? Maybe we think it's too difficult to figure out what living for the glory of God actually looks like. Or could it be that we think that the only time we are living for the glory of God is when we are doing the 'big things' for Him? And unless we're a missionary or risking our lives for Him, we aren't really living for His glory. But God has made it clear from the above Scripture, that He wants us to glorify Him in EVERYTHING - including things as seemingly insignificant, as eating, drinking, etc. We can glorify Him through those seemingly mundane things of life.

Whom Shall I Fear? by Gary Leming

On Sunday September 19, in our 5:30pm Celebration Service, I spoke from Deuteronomy, 31:8, The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged." It is absolutely one of God's commands to not be in fear. The only reason to fear is when you don't fear God [a reverent, holy fear]. Then you certainly should fear. In

"Everything we do is for God's Glory" today's upside-down world, how are we not to fear? Let's take a look at Paul in Acts 22:10, "What shall I do, Lord?" I asked.

The Higher Call by Earlene Leming

For thirty-five years, God blessed my life on the "mission field" of the Women's Prisons and Jails of California. He taught me spiritual truths through some difficult experiences during that time. It was as if Jesus said, "You will walk-through what you teach." So I told the stories and taught the lessons to hundreds of inmates. God answered the Word that He said to me: "if you go My way, you'll see miracles!"

With the help of Allison Bawn, a dear friend and spiritual daughter, we share a few miracle stories in our new book THE HIGHER CALL. Since I no longer go into Prisons, I will be sharing them here with YOU. Remember that others may see these as natural situations called "coincidences". But when YOU learn to recognize God's Hand in your own life, you will see Him working all things together for good...and you will SEE MIRACLES!

May God be glorified in our lives today!

John 17:4

~Earlene Leming

"Is Christ being glorified in you?"

"Do you desire His glory more than anything else?"

Using Our Story for His Glory continued

Is Christ being glorified in you?

We serve a God who is so near, that those who are jailed can have a worship service in the prison... Acts 16:25, About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them.

We serve a God so powerful, He makes the land of our affliction become fruitful...Genesis 41:52, And the name of the second he called Ephraim: "For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction."

Psalm 34:2-5

I will glory in the LORD; let the afflicted hear and rejoice. Glorify the LORD with me; let us exalt his name together. I sought the LORD, and he answered me; he delivered me from all my fears. Those who look to him are radiant; their faces are never covered with shame.

Do you desire His glory more than anything else?

- Pastor Sheri

" 'Get up,' the Lord said, 'and go into Damascus. There you will be told all that you have been assigned to do.'"

So how are we not to fear? By continually asking God for your assignment and putting your trust in Him who goes out ahead of you.

- Gary Leming

"The remarkable thing about God is that when you fear God, you fear nothing else, whereas if you do not fear God, you fear everything else."

Faith Christian Assembly's Men's Golf Tournament

Faith Christian Assembly's Men's Ministry is back in action with the return of the Men's Ministry Golf Tournament on Saturday October 2 at 8:00 am. At the time of this publication, the men have not yet gathered, but check back in our next newsletter for some highlights and results! The men will play "best ball" format as they compete for fun and prizes at Bixby Village Golf Course in Long Beach. "We hope to make this a regular event, as in the past it's proven to be a great connection for the men of Faith Christian Assembly and their friends and family members" commented Gary Leming, who together with Ruben De La Rosa, lead the FCA Men's Ministry.
