

Once again we bring greetings to Pleasant Hill Baptist Church from The RKL Education Foundation, Incorporated and The Gwinnett Pearls of Service Foundation, Incorporated of Gwinnett County, Georgia!

This letter serves as an additional communication related to the events and registration deadlines for our 5th Annual Greater Atlanta Historically Black College and University (HBCU) College Fair scheduled (Virtual) on Saturday, February 4, 2023, from 10am until 2pm and in-person Saturday, February 11, 2023, from 9am until 2pm at Meadowcreek High School, 4455 Steve Reynolds Blvd., Norcross, Georgia 30093.

We would like your assistance in informing your local high school juniors and seniors to register about the fair by having them visit our official website at <https://fair.hbcucf.org/registration>

We are excited to provide students with the opportunity to engage with HBCU representatives during our 5th Annual Greater Atlanta HBCU (Hybrid) College Fair, and we hope you will join us!

This year we are including an HBCU "Homecoming" week of events, workshops, and contests for scholarships and awards from February 4, 2023, through February 11, 2023.

Additionally, we are proud to once again offer student musicians the platform to display their talents before a panel of distinguished HBCU band directors for college band scholarships. Last year, our participating HBCU band directors offered students a total of $85,000 in potential scholarship dollars.

Please have your students register for the fair today. We will use the information provided by the students to follow up with them, plan, and promote the event. This event will benefit you and your students as they prepare for their journey into college and serve as a platform to build long-term key relationships. For all event details, including Student Registration, Workshops, Band Auditions, and the HBCU College Fair Essay Contest, visit our official website at <https://fair.hbcucf.org/registration>

With Gratitude,

Gregory Scott and Wendy Aina – HBCU College Fair Committee Chairmen
